ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $500, which is due immediately.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $1,500.00, which shall bear interest as provided by law. The fine shall be paid in full immediately.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Liem Duc Huynh, is hereby committed on Counts 1 through 5 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 1 day, which the Court finds has already been served in full. This term consists of 1 day credit time served on each of Counts 1 through 5, all to be served concurrently.

The defendant is hereby placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 through 5, all such terms to run concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;

evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;

5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychiatric disorder to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. 6. The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer; and
7. The defendant shall perform 50 hours of community service.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

Defendant advised of his right to appeal.

Bond is exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
